

Part 4

Early in 1997, I came across the site of Sherman Skolnick, a quadriplegic wheel-chair "Truther" who exposed the evil political schemes in Chicago. Unfortunately, Sherman Skolnick passed away in 2006. At the time I was researching the Internet on information pertaining to the death of President John F. Kennedy, a mission first begun in 1963. Sherman posted a statement that grabbed my attention:

"The Cuban strongman, Fidel Castro, was and is a Jesuit," said Skolnick, "hiding behind a left-wing label. Castro never disbanded the Catholic Church in Cuba. Under Vatican Canon Law, a Catholic leader of a nation, like JFK, that attacks another Catholic leader and nation, is subject to a Death Warrant."

Before Sherman Skolnick's untimely passing in 2006, he was right on the money about the Vatican and their Jesuit enforcers, warning Americans about a Papal Inquisition coming to the U.S. Skolnick passed away May, 22, 2006 and before he did, we had many late night conversations about Vatican infiltration in U.S. foreign and domestic policy. A number of Vatican watchers communicated with Skolnick.

About two weeks before his passing, he said to Greg Szymanski: "The papacy and the criminals in the U.S. government are working hand in glove, especially in the judiciary and the Federal Reserve banking system. Did you know the Jesuits run the Bank of America with their partners in the Japanese mafia?" he said in his matter-of-fact style.

“But, remember, if you want to get it right, if you want to figure out their game, always look left when the facts in the corrupt press tell you to look right. That’s why I work at night: so I can read the morning propaganda before it hits the newsstands.”

As a few of you already know, Skolnick began investigating judicial corruption in my hometown of Chicago in the 60’s. In the old days, he was hated by Mayor Daley and the Cook County judges, as he put an Illinois Supreme Court Justice behind bars as well as former Gov. Otto Kerner. Both past and present, Chicago and Illinois are crime central. Every day from his South Side bungalow, he tirelessly investigated with never-ending enthusiasm while trying to wake-up Americans to the satanic partnership between the Vatican, Mafia and world leaders – all this despite being crippled from childhood polio.

Having financial hang-ups, the spy-riddled, oil-soaked, heavily tax-cheating Monopoly Press cannot bring you a balanced view of any subject. If you are well informed, you certainly know that. I have noted the fact that Nazi Adolf Hitler was a Catholic in good standing with the Roman Catholic Church. Even with all the detestable and criminal actions he was responsible for, he was never excommunicated from the Church given his evil legacy.

For some years before, during, and after World War II, he was known as Pope Pius 12th. But before he became Pope, he was Papal Nuncio in Berlin. Some contend he was supportive of the rise of Adolf Hitler.

- Some authors accused him of being pro-Nazi.
(“The Deputy” by Rolf Hochhuth. ‘Hitler’s Pope: The Secret History of Pius XII’, by John Cornwell, 1999)
- It is beyond dispute that after World War II, Pius assisted and even wanted war-criminal Nazis to escape down the “Rat-lines” to the U.S., South America, and Croatia.
(“Aftermath” by Ladislav Farago)
- As a young man, he was a theater expert and actor. During his later career, was he just acting as well? During World War II, he held a position in an I.G. Farben facility, the Nazi poison gas factory which was part of a chemical cartel.
(For background, “The Crime and Punishment of I.G. Farben” by Joseph Borkin)

Karol Wojtyla was a sort of chief assistant to the Bishop of Krakow, who being pro-Nazi, controlled fellow Poles with an iron fist and kept them submissive and docile for the benefit of the German occupation forces. Later, far too many Poles claimed they knew nothing of the round-up of the Jews from the ghettos and transporting them to concentration camps for slave labor for I.G. Farben.

Millions of Jews, labor leaders, and other “enemies of the State” were worked to death while being starved. Elderly and disabled Jews were quickly disposed of; they were of no use in the Nazi war factories.

Most Poles either later denied knowing of this when it was happening or claimed they did not participate in the crimes against humanity. Presumably, Wojtyla took the same position as his fellow Poles. In his later career, did anyone in the Monopoly Press ever dare ask him?

Then there is another story. In their secret Conclave, the Cardinals selected another Italian to be Pope in 1978: John Paul 1st. But from a geopolitical and religious stand-point, it soon became evident that they most likely made a wrong selection.

Soon enough, he let it be known that he was favorable to modifying the Vatican position of absolute prohibition for Catholics to use birth control. In simple terms, he was against birthing more children than a couple could financially take care of. It was a reasonable, humane position to non-Catholics.

Furthermore, he was determined to put an end to the traditional Sicilian and Italian Mafia, jointly held with certain corrupt Archbishops, and the American CIA in using the Vatican Bank as a money laundering function for stolen gold treasuries, dope money, illicit weapons deals, assassination funds, and superior counterfeit currency dealings, among other dirty and bloody business.

Some Italian editors dared demand that Pope John Paul 1st, do something about the Continental Bank of Chicago, the majority owners jointly being the Vatican and the Queen of England. The bank, some Italian editors stated, was a laundry for the Mafia.

[As Skolnick dared point out publicly, the Chief Judge of the Chicago Federal Appeals Court, Walter Cummings, Jr., was a “man of trust” for the Vatican, and held a large block of shares, as nominee and front man for the Pope. Judge Cummings, a banker-judge, did NOT disqualify himself when his Continental Bank and their major clients were litigants in his tribunal. Guess who won in his crooked Court?] Continental Bank collapsed in 1984 and was taken over later by Bank of America, owned jointly by the Jesuits and the Japanese underworld, the Yakuza.

Thirty-three days after taking office, Pope John Paul 1st was poisoned with a cup of tea and an overdose of digitalis. It was a symbolic warning and death warrant by the Free Masons, the Jesuits, and Opus Dei, the super-fascist, super-secret group (by 2005, Opus Dei occupying their own large building in New York city). More details of the plot against Pope John Paul 1st are in the book 'In God's Name' by David Yallop.

Thereafter, the secret Vatican Conclave of Cardinals put together a scheme, with the urging of the American CIA, to topple the Soviet government. This series would not be possible were it not for the fact that I have been a student of history since my days during the Cold War of the 1950's. To understand the rationale, you have to have a good understanding of history. The Anglo-American Aristocracy financed the rise of the Nazis and Adolf Hitler, as a bulwark against the Soviets.

In the beginning, the Prussian/German Aristocracy was reluctant to finance Hitler. [See, 'Who Financed Hitler' by Susan Poole.] With his background affiliation with the pro-Nazi Polish Bishop of Krakow, Wojtyla was a suitable and forceful Anti-Communist. But he lacked the humanity for Italians. In 1979, there was a terrible earthquake in the historically impoverished southern part of Italy. The destitute Italians demanded that the new Pontiff, John Paul 2nd, relieve some of their suffering by sending them financial aid from his Mafia/American CIA controlled Vatican Bank. The Pope refused.

As best he could through his helpers, John Paul 2nd kept the censorship of the Vatican Intelligence from revealing the growing scandal of international swindler Michele Sindona who was operating through the Vatican Bank and the Vatican-owned Continental Bank of Chicago. – (See 'St. Peter's Banker' by Luigi DiFonzo.)

Starting about 1980, the American CIA jointly held a deal with the bosses of 'Time' Magazine which arranged tremendous secret financing for their paid-for Polish provocateur, Lech Walesa. As a leader of the Polish Solidarity Movement, Walesa stirred the workers up at the Lenin Shipyards at Gdansk, Poland.

As the Soviets understood by his statements and speeches, Pope John Paul II merged efforts with Western paid-for provocateur Lech Walesa and was stirring up fellow Poles in rebellion against the Moscow government. To the Soviets, considering how many Soviet lives were lost in freeing Poland from the Germans, Wojtyla was a rotten intermeddler.

In May 1981, a deranged and supposed left-wing Turk, was grabbed after reportedly being the "lone assassin" attempting to kill Pope John Paul II by shooting him in the abdomen right in Vatican Square.

Thereafter, two opposing spy shops released supposed details describing how the other side instigated the would-be assassin. The American CIA planted a flood of apparently phony details that the Bulgarian Secret Police were accomplices of the Turk in Italy and maybe even right in Vatican Square. Various international inquiries tended to show that the CIA stories had no basis.

On the other hand, the Soviets planted stories that seemed to have "legs". The Soviets made a compelling case that the supposed deranged Turk was part of a Right-wing Military group operating in Turkey while being financed by the American CIA.

These two versions tended to cancel each other out. Questions left unanswered were that the Polish Solidarity Movement was reportedly not receiving the funding promised them by the West.

So wounding Wojtyla right on the grounds of the Vatican, was perceived by savvy folks as a way of reminding the West to send more money to the Solidarity Movement. or, maybe it was just a leftover warning for the Pope to be sure to keep covered up and under wraps the details of the Sindona scandal. After all, some claimed Sindona's main efforts in accounting were to whisk huge Italian business funds out of Italy in order to escape the tax collectors. Or, wounding the Pope was a way for the southern Italians and the Sicilians to remind the Pontiff not to be so stingy concerning the refusal of earthquake relief funds in 1979.

Regarding the possibility of modifying the Church's position on birth control, compare the following with the position of the murdered Pope John Paul I. When Pope John Paul II visited Mexico, implicit in his statements was that he was basically urging Mexicans to go full speed ahead in fathering children. Yet, Mexico City is over-populated with more than 32 million inhabitants. The authorities have no funds left for sanitation. So in many poor sections, the streets become the toilet and dumping grounds for waste. It makes for a terribly unhealthy situation. The Pope offered no remedy for the sanitation issue, but was instead interested in producing more members for his Church.

Over a number of years, Pope John Paul II made apologies for various historical crimes made by his Church. In 1492, for example, Columbus landed in the new world. Thereafter, the Catholic Church committed terrible crimes against the natives of Mexico and Central America as well as the black people and other slaves. In 1992, five hundred years later, Pope John Paul II visited Central America and made apologies for the crimes of the five hundred years previous. To some it was an worthless, idle gesture. In addition, the Pope visited a memorial to the Holocaust in Israel and made his apologies there as well. To some, this was also a meaningless, idle and insincere ceremony.

The more important purpose of the Vatican was seldom mentioned in Pope John Paul II's efforts to topple the Soviet Union. That is, to smash if possible, the Eastern Orthodox Church, a competitor if not enemy of the Vatican for more than a thousand years. Some people have conveniently forgotten a few things. Such as, up to the beginning of the 19th Century, popes who threatened to throw members out of the Church and excommunicate them, for daring to say the Earth is not flat. That is, the Vatican was the headquarters of the Flat Earth Committee. The Jesuits are still planting that myth even in this present day.

- Did any Pope ever urge scientific progress in medicines, healthcare, transportation, and communications?
- Or has any pope ever urged progress in laborsaving machinery so human beings would not be just above a pack animal?
- Why does it seem the Popes have their Church in full reverse gear instead of forward and progressive?

(For more background read about the Vatican, as absentee owners of the electricity business in Chicago and Illinois. 'The Electric Scandal'. And what happened to 'The Pope's Three Banks in the U.S.')

A well-informed author on the topic of the Vatican, was reportedly coming forward with a well-documented and researched book, showing that the late Pope John Paul II worked for the Nazi Gestapo in Poland during World War II. He rounded up Polish Resistance Fighters and turned them over to the Nazis who had them shot, so the book contends. However some of them survived.

Some belatedly contend that secretive German funds possibly from surviving post-war Nazis arranged for and financed the clandestine Conclave that installed Wojtyla as Pope John Paul II. Remember: the Anglo-American Aristocracy financed the rise of Adolf Hitler as a bulwark against the Soviets. Oh, but you did not know this! More will be revealed on this later.

Enforcers for the Vatican are called Jesuits. Although he is NOT a person of color, the head of the Jesuits is nevertheless called the "BLACK POPE". Over the centuries, Jesuits hiding behind royal court types and who possessed Jewish names were called hofjuden. These individuals sought to control, if not topple, various European monarchs - most of them Catholics.

By Royal Order, Jesuits were banished from Spain, France, and 80 other places. Hiding behind others, the Jesuits actually went underground and continued to plot the control of Monarchs. In America, the Jesuits have Hollywood hofjuden (court Jews) operating as a front. Hollywood has angered Christians by not showing films about the non-Jewish holocaust victims. Jesuits also hide behind aristocracy fronts, such as the Council on Foreign Relations, CFR.

In his Inauguration speech in 1841, President William Henry Harrison directly angered the Jesuits. He dared confront the Jesuits and then Pope, by proclaiming: "We admit of no government BY DIVINE RIGHT, believing that so far as power is concerned, the beneficent Creator has made no distinction among men; that all are on an equality, and that the only legitimate right to govern, is upon the expressed grant of power from the governed." President Harrison was poisoned to death thirty-five days later for the benefit, if not actually arranged, by the Jesuits and the British Monarchy.

All told, SEVEN U.S. PRESIDENTS were assassinated from 1841 to 1963. The crimes were orchestrated, if not actually arranged, by the Jesuits and the British Monarchy. Four were killed by gunfire and three were murdered by poisoning.

Over the last two centuries or more, seldom is more publicly ever mentioned. Various Jesuits and Popes have labeled the Declaration of Independence as "wickedness", and that Popular Government, provided by the U.S. Constitution with its Bill of Rights is a "satanic instrument". Are we Americans heading for the doctrines of the Nazi regime if not actually here already?

It is documented beyond dispute, that Prescott S. Bush, Sr., father of George Herbert Walker Bush, and grandfather of George W. Bush, had instrumentally financed the rise of Adolf Hitler. In fact, his bank was taken over by the U.S. government for dealing with the enemy.

The term Homeland Security is an anglicized version of the abbreviated German term "Gestapo". Adolf Hitler in 1933, George W. Bush in 2000, and repeated again in 2004, were installed in the highest office of their respective nations by arbitrary and corrupt powers. (To understand the role of the corrupt gang of five U.S. Supreme Court Justices who installed Bush in December of 2000, in the Bush versus Gore campaign, as the occupant and resident of the White House, study the website series, "Coca-Cola, CIA, and the Courts" here:

<http://www.apfn.org/SkolnicksReport/cocaccc13.html>

The new Monarch in the Vatican, Joseph Ratzinger, Pope Benedict XVI, was immediately whitewashed by the liars and whores of the oil-soaked, spy-riddled, massive tax-cheating Monopoly Press. They described his past as his father was so Anti-Nazi that he had to move to another town. Actually, Joseph Ratzinger was in the Hitler Youth and his family were apparently pro-Nazi. Over the many years, Germany repeatedly attacked France. So French Catholics were appalled, if not angered, that Joseph Ratzinger was the first German Pope in over one thousand years.

Before the 1960 Election, John F. Kennedy spoke in Texas to a group of Protestant preachers. He said he was only nominally Catholic and that if elected he will not bow down for the Vatican. Right there, such a bold statement became JFK's Death Warrant. Shortly after being inaugurated in 1961, President Kennedy reluctantly went along with a plan (left over from the Eisenhower Administration) to attempt an invasion into Cuba at the Bay of Pigs.

The Cuban strongman, Fidel Castro, was a Jesuit, hiding behind a left-wing label. Castro never disbanded the Catholic Church in Cuba. Under Vatican Canon Law, a Catholic leader of a nation, like JFK, that attacks another Catholic leader and nation is subject to a Death Warrant.

What Catholic countries would want a pro-Nazi Pope? South America has many such. Included is heavily Catholic Argentina. Toward the end of World War II, various Nazi war criminals, using Vatican-supplied passports and disguises, escaped down the "Ratlines" to Argentina, Brazil, Bolivia, Paraguay, and elsewhere in South America. The present Pope Francis was the first Cardinal elected pope in 2013. By the 1950's, all the named countries had Fascist Nazi style governments.

German submarines loaded with Nazi gold also arrived in South America. So the children and grand-children of escaped Nazis, with their fortunes, dominate the Catholic Church throughout South America.

Such Catholic Church leaders were rooted out, in some instances, assassinated, apparently on the dictates of Pope John Paul II, ostensibly through his enforcer, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger. Centuries ago, at the behest of the Vatican, was the bloody, horrible "The Inquisition".

- Does it still exist today? Yes, its existence since 1981 was, like centuries ago, installed to punish "heretics". Its title is now something like "Promoting the Faithful".
- Who has headed this latter day "Inquisition"? Why, it was none other than pro-Nazi Joseph Ratzinger, now Pope Benedict XVI.
- Was it just a coincidence that Joseph Ratzinger was selected as the new Pope on April 19, 2005, a day before Adolf Hitler's birthday?
- What is the result of part of the planet returning again to rule by Nazis?

Now ask yourself who would you rather believe - Sherman Skolnick or Alex Jones, who won't say a bloody word about Jesuit and Vatican corruption. Skolnick once told this editor in his Chicago style. "I wouldn't trust him as far as I could throw him!"
