

What to Expect During The Great Tribulation

If you wonder what is on the horizon when it comes to Bible events and prophetic time-markers, you can be sure of this basic fact, we are NOT yet in the Tribulation period as some are suggesting. This is to remind those of you looking for the Pre-Tribulation Rapture, that we should still be watching, awake, and at work. We want to wake people up to the fact that earth-shaking events will transpire during the final “seven” years of human life as we know it. The following list of events virtually dictate a period of time that we refer to as Daniel’s 70th Week, or “seven” years. If you find current events as somehow characteristic of the Tribulation, think again. For example consider the fact that Revelation, chapters 6-18 speak of events that have never happened is all of recorded history.

The following list of over 130 specific events remain to be fulfilled according to the Bible, and they are associated with the period we know as Daniel’s 70th Week, or in other words, the period we refer to as the “Seven” year Great Tribulation. This list will give you an accurate and reasonable order of events that remains to be fulfilled, and from all understanding and analysis, these events have NOT YET occurred. The next event to occur will be the Rapture of the Bride/Church. There are upward of two-hundred events that have not taken place and conclusively prove the Tribulation has NOT begun. When you closely analyze the events of the Tribulation, it becomes vividly and vibrantly clear that few will survive the sheer terror unfolding during this period. Furthermore, it is a period in stark contrast with God's Master Plan of Redemption where Deliverance precedes Judgment.

Many writers and scholars have been misled to believe the Islamic invasion of Europe and the west is the rise of an Islamic Antichrist. They look at the immediate geo-political scene without ever thinking about what takes place after the Ezekiel 38/39 War. Any one following the news in the Middle East recognizes that Islam is in the ascent stage currently but this will be short-lived. Their myopic view of Biblical history fails and falls short of the larger picture of the Tribulation period. The Ezekiel 38/39 War occurs at the outset of the 70th Week of Daniel, and that may be closer than any of us know. With God's intervention in the early weeks and months of the Tribulation, Islam will cease to be a significant power. Health authorities in Italy and Denmark report that as high as 50% of the Islamic invaders are mentally ill. This is a result of Islamic inbreeding and incest. But let's put that aside for now and examine the Biblical references to events of the last "Seven" years of Man's reign:

I began to compile and organize this list over four decades ago and it has been subject to intense study during that period of time. Not all data points are in strict chronological order. Although there is a general sequence of events, it is unlikely that a true objective chronological itemization is possible. For example on point #8: The tower of Syene did not exist when it was written of in Ezekiel approximately 2,600 years ago. When Ezekiel was written about 570 B.C. there was no place called Syene; it came into existence in 1967 with the construction of the Aswan Dam at Lake Nassar, 550 miles south of Cairo, Egypt. Writing about 2,600 years ago, the prophet Ezekiel made the following predictions:

Egypt, from Migdol in the north to Syene (Aswan) in the south would become "desolate and waste" -(Ezekiel 29:10). Wealthy Egyptians like the Fayed family that owns Harrods in London have fled the country. -(Ezekiel 29:12).

God said: "I will make the rivers (of Egypt) dry... and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers". -(Ezekiel 30:12-13).

"I will also destroy the idols, (Abu Simbel?... the entire "god-worship" of idols) and I will cause their images to cease out of the land of Noph... and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt" -- (Ezekiel 30:13).

Isaiah wrote as follows: "And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river (of Egypt) shall be wasted and dried up... the reeds and flags shall wither... The fishers also shall mourn... they that work in fine flax... they that weave networks shall be confounded... Neither shall there be any work for Egypt... In that day shall Egypt... be afraid and fear because of the shaking by the hand of the Lord of hosts" -(Isaiah 19:5-16).

The dam holding the Nile River is so massive, engineers state it could only be destroyed by a nuclear bomb. For it to be completely destroyed, flooding Egypt with all the backed up water, frankly it would take a nuclear bomb. All the water flooding Egypt would then be radioactive, and would almost certainly render Egypt uninhabitable for a long time. Egypt's population is mostly all along the Nile because the rest of Egypt is barren desert.

For most of the past 1,700 years of Christian history, 90% of the Christian community has held to the traditional Roman Catholic view which claims there would be no Rapture of the born-again Bride/Church. The Roman Catholic Institution adopted the Amillennial View (meaning no Millennium) with bishop Augustine of Hippo, North Africa in the mid-fourth century. Augustine initially began his ministry believing in a Literal interpretation of the Bible, only later to shift to the Allegorical interpretation, followed by his rejection of the Pre-Millennial Pre-Tribulation Rapture. The Amillennial view supports the many heretical teachings of Roman and Orthodox Catholicism. Many Protestants revere Saint Augustine without knowing much about his heretical beliefs and teachings.

The Catholic Post-Tribulation view is the only view that supports the heretical doctrine of purgatory, among other false doctrines held by Catholics. Catholicism has added hundreds of false doctrines and dogma, and as such, will never reject the Post-Tribulation teaching. Additionally, the Apocrypha or extra-Biblical writings provide Catholicism with foundational support for purgatory and other Catholic doctrine. Newer Catholic Bibles removed the Apocrypha to be more ecumenical. But, without the Apocrypha, Catholicism cannot defend many of their heretical teachings. The doctrine of purgatory is a cash cow for the Catholic churches. Many Bibles sold today contain the Apocrypha as a gesture of support for ecumenism.

As I studied world events over the past fifty-years, I have witnessed the rise of the elements of what the Bible refers to as the One-World-Government; made up of three components: A One-World Government; a One-World Economy; and a One-World Religion.

Beginning with Catholicism's Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo, North Africa) in the mid-300's, the failure of the Christian community to understand the prophetic aspects of the Bible has been so confounded by church theology over the past 1900+ years. The church was overcome with errant theology from the Alexandrian school, home of Gnosticism, which was to become central in the Roman merger of church and state by Constantine. By the 4th century A.D., Rome had suppressed the Antioch school and replaced it with what became known as "Covenant" theology; and then later, following the Protestant Reformation, it became known as "Covenant/Reformed" theology. The Roman Catholicism of then and of today is not, and has never been Christian, but it will become the dominant one-world religion of the Tribulation period. Revelation 13, 17, 18, and part of 19 is unquestionably about Mystery, Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots. The Vatican has gradually positioned itself to become the only religious institution to assert spiritual and temporal authority once the Pre-Tribulation Rapture occurs.

Journalist, Cliff Kincaid, authored a book, 'Global Bondage: The UN Plan to Rule the World'. It is out of print today, but the author, himself a Roman Catholic, and critical of the institution and the present-day pope, lays out the great grand plan of enslaving humanity through Catholic Jesuit "Liberation" theology and a Catholic-Marist-Socialism. The Jesuits have been the originators of the various ideologies or "Isims"; i.e., Fascism, Communism, Socialism, and even Capitalism. As part of a greater strategy of "divide and conquer" through the "Hegelian Dialectic", the "Isims" were but mere instruments to achieve global enslavement of humanity.

But, let's turn to a matter of greater importance in your understanding of the Word of God. There are three or four different ways that prophecy is interpreted and taught. They all have interpretation problems, but rather than go into all of them here, it is simpler to state that there is only one interpretation that has the fewest unresolved theological questions pertaining to the understanding of End Times events. This system is known as "Dispensationalism", and it understands the Bible as being Pre-Tribulation, Pre-Millennial in a number of ways. The "Dispensational" position holds to the "Golden Rule" of interpretation:

"If the plain sense makes sense, don't look for any other sense, lest you end up with nonsense."

The "Dispensationalist" view holds to a reading of Scripture first and foremost as being literally interpreted. We presume God wanted to give humanity as clear as possible, a meaning that we would understand and discover its basic truth. There are other grammatical and linguistic tools and devices that further enhance the explanation and understanding, but "Dispensationalism" holds to the above "Golden Rule" of interpretation.

As an example of this rule, we turn to Revelation 20, where it states that the Millennium will be 1,000 years. The chapter notes this point six times. I did a study of Revelation 20, "Revelation 20: Literal or Symbolic". The Greek word [χίλιοι chilioi] is very precise and means just what it says in the English translation. It does not simply mean "a long time", or "an infinite period", or something that is elusive to readers. It means what it says and says what it means!

The first rule of interpretation of the Bible is centered in three basic instructions when it comes to making sense:

1. Who is speaking in the passage?
2. Who is being spoken to in the passage?
3. What is the content being spoken about?

Another rule of interpretation is "Context, Context, Context" which means Scripture can be best understood when studied within its context; i.e., a paragraph, a chapter, a book, etc. All interpretations of the book of Revelation is confronted with the fact that it uses more symbolic words and phrases than any book of the Bible.

The aforementioned list of events associated with the Tribulation period precludes any idea that we are in the period known as Daniel's 70th Week. A cursory study of the noted events confirms that life will be far more perilous than anything known in the 19th and 20th centuries. One ought not to have any doubt that as of this date (11/2017) we are not presently in the Tribulation. The Tribulation events listed are not a total list, as I am sure I may have unintentionally omitted some.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the fact that among the 1,189 chapters of the Bible, 150 specific chapters speak to the issue on 'End Times' as the primary subject! 28% of the 31,102 verses speak to prophecy of one subject or another. Prophecy becomes a confirmation signature of the authenticity of the Bible when history is told in advance as prophecy!

Equally significant is the fact that the 1,000th chapter of the King James Bible is John 3, and it contains some of the most important truths of the Word of God.

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” –(John 3:3).

“Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.” –(John 3:5).

“That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. –(John 3:6). Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.” –(John 3:7).

“That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. –(John 3:15). For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. –(John 3:16). For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. –(John 3:17). He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.” –(John 3:18).

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” –(John 3:36).

Make no mistake about it, the Creator of the Universe, Christ Jesus considers 1,000 to be one of God’s numbers of perfection. Could the keystone verses of the Bible in the chapter with Jesus teaching on the plan of redemption just happened to be located in the perfectly numbered chapter? God is the Master Mathematician! In previous articles, it has been demonstrated that God has revealed the mathematical properties of Pi, Phi, and Euhler, two of which (Pi and Euhler) are encoded in Genesis 1:1 and John 1:1 respectively. It may surprise the skeptic here but the 500th chapter of the Bible contains the 22nd Psalm, another of the significant Psalms. The 22nd Psalm is the only place that can be definitively cross-referenced back to the Old Testament and show where clear ancient prophetic proof of Jesus being the Messiah can be found. Some of the last words of Jesus on the cross according to the books of Matthew and Mark are “My God, my God why have thou forsaken me?” –(Matthew 27:46; Mark 15:34).
